Guide to

Government of the Northwest Territories

Grants and Contributions Programs

April 2007

FOREWORD

This Guide is a compilation of information on ongoing grants and contributions programs offered by the Government of the Northwest Territories.

The Guide provides an overview of each program and sets out who is eligible to receive funding, the maximum amounts payable and information on where to make an application. However, prospective applicants are strongly advised to contact the appropriate department to obtain complete details about the specifics of the program before making an application.

This Guide is published annually by the Cabinet Secretariat, Department of Executive, Government of the Northwest Territories. It is distributed to Members of the Legislative Assembly, all departments of the Government of the Northwest Territories, libraries and the offices of some non-government agencies. It is also available on the Government of the Northwest Territories' website at www.gov.nt.ca.

Purpose

To provide financial assistance to organizations actively involved in the preservation, portrayal and promotion of heritage in the Northwest Territories, for repairs and upgrades to community museums and heritage facilities.

Financial assistance is available for assessments, repairs or capital improvements to, or planning studies for:

(1) community museums; and
(2) heritage facilities.

Eligibility

Eligibility for this program is restricted to NWT-registered societies, local governments or not-for-profit corporations whose mandates include the ongoing delivery of heritage programs.

Preference will be given to:

(1) Requests from registered heritage centers for assistance with repairing or upgrading facilities that maintain and preserve established collections. Registered heritage centres are only those community-based heritage facilities that meet the criteria outlined in Section 6.11 of the Heritage Services Policy available from the Department of Education, Culture and Employment; and

(2) Projects that demonstrate funding from other sources and/or support-in-kind.

Amount

Subject to the availability of funding, a maximum amount of $20,000 per project is available under this program.

The Culture and Heritage Division will recommend to the appropriate authority the amount of the contribution, recognizing that the amount of funding is based on the demonstrated need of the organization and the number of organizations applying for funds as well as an approved budget allocation for the Department of Education, Culture and Employment.

Purpose

The program provides financial assistance for the promotion and preservation of cultural identity and the enhancement of traditional cultures in the NWT.

Eligibility

Eligibility is restricted to:

(a) Organizations, individuals, community governments and band councils with demonstrated interest in the promotion and enhancement of Northwest Territories' cultures.

(b) Cultural events and projects that are primarily located outside of the Northwest Territories will not be considered for funding. Preference will be given, but not limited, to those applicants who have a diversified funding base and who attempt to strengthen traditional culture within a contemporary context.

(c) For oral traditions projects, applicants must have written verification of community support for their research objectives. In order to receive funding, each recipient must be willing to acquire or to demonstrate their knowledge of interview and research skills, as well as to become familiar with the procedures used to store recordings.

Amount

The amount of funding is based on the demonstrated need of the applicant and the number of applicants for funding as well as budget allocation as approved by the Legislative Assembly:

(a) total financial assistance will not exceed $20,000 per year per individual or organization; and

(b) total financial assistance for researchers from outside of the Northwest Territories will not exceed 25 percent of the total program budget.

Purpose

To provide Northwest Territories hunters and trappers with access to the financial resources necessary to participate in the fur industry.

Eligibility

Individual holders of a valid Northwest Territories General Hunting or Trapping Licence who are resident in the Northwest Territories.

Genuine Mackenzie Valley Fur Program

(a) Advance
The Genuine Mackenzie Valley Fur (GMVF) advance program provides guaranteed advances to trappers delivering prime fur for sale through the GMVF program. Advances are based largely on anticipated market performance.

(b) Prime Fur Bonus
If the trapper's fur is sold for the same value or more than the advance, the trapper is entitled to receive a Prime Fur Bonus. The bonus payment recognizes that the fur is in good condition and has been well handled by the trapper.

(c) Fall Grub Stake
A trapper must harvest 20 or more pelts, to a maximum of 200 pelts of any species in the GMVF program to receive a payment (minimum $100; maximum of $1,000).

The GMVF marketing program also pays for all commissions, shipping and handling fees for fur shipped to auction.

Trappers who choose to ship their fur outside the GMVF program are entitled to the same benefits with the exception that no advance will be issued.

Health and Social Services

- Community Wellness Program 48
- Health Promotion Fund 49
- Medical Professional Development 50

Purpose

The Department of Health and Social Services administers five (5) Community Wellness Programs. Contribution funding is available to eligible communities, non-profit groups and/or Band Councils.

The five initiatives have community wellness as their broad purpose, though each has a separate program-specific objective.

Eligibility

For each of the programs, funding is proposal-based with varying application processes. Applicants should contact the Department directly for information on eligibility requirements of a particular Community Wellness Program, and for request for proposal (RFP) information.

National Aboriginal Youth Suicide Prevention Strategy (NAYSPS)
Public RFP notices are posted in the NewsNorth once a year.

Aboriginal Diabetes Initiative
Public RFP notices are posted in NewsNorth once a year.

Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder Program
Public RFP notices are posted in NewsNorth once a year.

Brighter Futures
Communities each have a sponsoring organization, typically the Band Office, which submits proposals annually. Local groups can approach their sponsoring organization to have specific projects included.

Canada Prenatal Nutrition Program (CPNP)
Communities identify project sponsors to submit proposals for funding. Communities can contact their Regional CPNP Coordinator for support to submit a proposal.

Amount

The amount of the contribution or grant is based on proposal merit and funding availability.

Purpose

Contribution funding is available to non-government organizations for projects that promote healthy lifestyles and practices occurring within a fiscal year.

Eligibility

Applicants must be non-government, not-for-profit organizations, and must demonstrate that:

(a) the project will focus on healthy lifestyles and practices through health promotion, health-related activities and education;

(b) the project is community-based, regional or territorial in scope, and addresses one or more of the Department of Health and Social Services Healthy Choices strategy priorities.

(c) the project will operate for the purposes specified and for the benefit of Northwest Territories residents, as acknowledged by the applicant in writing.

(d) the funding recipient will provide a semi-annual and year-end activity and financial reports as required for ongoing and future program evaluation.

Amount

The amount of the contribution is a maximum of $10,000.

- Corrections Elders Program 55
- Law Career Development Program 56
- National Justice Organizations 57
- Protection Against Family Violence Program 58
- Victims Programs and Projects 59
- Wilderness Camps 60

Purpose

To contribute to the legal expenses of individuals and non-profit organizations seeking to use the court process to define or protect Aboriginal or treaty rights of the Aboriginal peoples of the Northwest Territories.

Eligibility

Funding is available to individuals that reside, and non-profit organizations that operate, in the Northwest Territories.

Applicants will be expected to apply for funding from the Federal Court Challenges Program or the Department of Indian Affairs and Northern Development, if available.

Amount

(a) Approval may be granted for specified stages in the litigation process. The total assistance provided for preparation and all stages of litigation shall not exceed $65,000 over the duration of the case.

(b) There may be limits set on the amount of funding which is to be provided for each stage of the action, or limiting the amount to be provided for each particular aspect of the expenses.

(c) In complex cases, funding may be authorized in excess of the maximum set out in paragraph (a) above.

(d) Partial funding may be granted in cases, which are only in part eligible for funding under this program.

*Guidelines are available on the Department of Justice website: www.justice.gov.nt.ca/ARCCP/ARCCP.htm

Purpose

To assist with annual operating expenditures of the Canadian Association of Provincial Court Judges.

The grant is utilized to help underwrite all operational expenses together with the educational and research projects of the organization. In addition, the funds cover the expenses of Judges attending the annual conference. The Association promotes a greater degree of uniformity and equality in the overall administration of justice throughout the Provinces and the Territories through its members and annual conferences.

Eligibility

Limited to the Canadian Association of Provincial Court Judges.

Amount

Grants are determined on an equity basis with each province and territory.

Purpose

To promote and encourage the participation of communities in the justice system and the development and implementation of community-based alternatives to the formal justice system. Proposals must have as a goal the development or implementation of culturally relevant community justice initiatives involving both victims of crime and offenders.

Eligibility

Funding is primarily available to Community Justice Committees. Funding may also be available to other non-profit organizations and community and regional organizations whose efforts directly benefit the people of the Northwest Territories.

Amount

Funding levels are based on a per capita model. Additional funds, above and beyond the initial allocation, may be provided by the Department. A project proposal will be required for each additional request.

Purpose

To provide funding to community governments to assist with the provision of community government services and infrastructure.

Eligibility

Eligibility provisions of the Community Government Funding Policy are articulated further in three supporting policies:

Formula-Based Funding: community governments established under NWT legislation or the Band Councils that provide municipal services are eligible for funding under the Community Government Funding Policy.

Municipal Infrastructure Funding: All non-tax-based community governments that receive funding under the Community Government Funding Policy are allocated funds on an unconditional basis. Community governments set their own priorities for funding municipal programs and services, including municipal infrastructure funding for the planning and delivery of municipal infrastructure projects.

Extraordinary Funding: Community governments established under NWT legislation or the Band Councils that provide municipal services are eligible for funding under the Extraordinary Funding Policy.

Amount

Formula-Based Funding: Available funding is proportionally allocated to eligible community governments.

Municipal Infrastructure Funding: The Department of Municipal and Community Affairs does not provide additional funding specifically for municipal infrastructure projects, other than if a municipal infrastructure project is required on an emergency basis (i.e. public health or safety reasons).

Extraordinary Funding: The Department of Municipal and Community Affairs may provide extraordinary funding to a community government when an unforeseen situation arises in the operation of the community government requiring funding that is additional to normal requirements; and Extraordinary Funding contributions are allocated with the intent to resolve the unforeseen situation within one or two years. Funding amounts provided are dependent on the nature of the extraordinary funding request.

Purpose

To encourage and support community governments involved in the development of programs that address community priorities in the areas of families and youth, healthy lifestyles and safety education with a special emphasis on active living.

Eligibility

Non-taxed-based community governments or community-supported organizations in those communities are eligible for funding for the following expenses and activities:

(a) Minor capital recreation projects including but not limited to above-ground swimming pools, outdoor skating rinks, parks, playgrounds, trails and sport fields;

(b) Community youth centers;

(c) Initiatives designed to increase access to community and active-living activities for special needs groups; and

(d) Safety education programs.

Programs with an emphasis related to the promotion of active living will be given priority.

Amount

(a) The total GNWT contribution through this program cannot exceed $100,000 in a fiscal year.

(b) Projects are eligible to receive funding for a maximum of two fiscal years, for a total project maximum of $200,000.

(c) Program funding will be restricted to one project per community in any fiscal year.

(d) Funding can be used for new initiatives or to top up existing funding being accessed through other sources.

(e) Eligible applicants can utilize services-in-kind as part of their contribution to a project.

(f) The proposed funding cannot be used to develop GNWT-owned and operated infrastructure.

The program will be application-based with a portion of the total budget allocated to each region. If a regional allocation has not been spent or committed by October 1st each year, the budget may be reassigned to projects in other regions. No community will receive funding for three years in a row, unless no other suitable applications are received by the October 1st deadline.

Purpose

To provide funding for contracted financial services to support community governments to maintain sound financial practices and strengthen financial management.

Eligibility

Community governments established under NWT legislation or the Band Councils that provide municipal services are eligible.

Short-term requirements for financial services may occasionally arise requiring funding that is additional to normal requirements. The financial services required may include independent management services, financial advice, and/or auditing and accounting assistance. Community governments may also occasionally require funding in order to maintain an adequate level of financial services in the event of a temporary shortage of qualified staff.

Amount

The Department of Municipal and Community Affairs may contribute up to 75% of the total cost of the contracted services.
